Personnel Of Re-Formed Interim Govt. Announced

NEW DELHI, October 15, (A.P.I.): The Muslim League has decided to enter the Interim Government, Mr. Liaquat Ali Khan, General Secretary of the Muslim League, announced tonight at the conclusion of today's session of the Working Committee. Mr. Liaquat Ali Khan said the League Working Committee has forwarded a list of five names to the Viceroy for inclusion in the Interim Government. The Muslim League's list of five names includes a non-Muslim—Mr. J. C. Mandal, a member of the Scheduled Castes Federation, from Bengal. This is revealed in the 'communique' announcing the personnel of the re-formed Cabinet.

LEAGUE SURPRISE

A Press 'Communique' says:—The Muslim League have decided to join the Interim Government and His Majesty the King has been pleased to appoint the following to be members of the Interim Government:—

Mr. LIAQAT ALI KHAN;
Mr. I. I. CHUNDRIGAR;
Mr. ABDUR RAB NISHTAR;
Mr. GHAZNAFAR ALI KHAN;
Mr. JOGENDRA NATH MANDAL;

In order to make it possible to re-form the Cabinet the following members have tendered their resignations:—

Mr. SARAT CHANDRA BOSE;
Sir SHAFAAT AHMED KHAN;
SYED ALI ZAHEER;

The members of the present Cabinet who will continue to serve are the following:—

PANDIT JAWAHARLAL NEHRU;
SARDAR VALLABHBHAI PATEL;
DR. RAJENDRA PRASAD;
MR. ASAF ALI;
MR. C. RAJAGOPALACHARI;
DR. JOHN MATHAI;
SARDAR BALDEV SINGH;
MR. JAGJIVAN RAM;
MR. COOVERJI HORMUSJI BHABHA.

The distribution of portfolios will be settled early next week and the new members will then be sworn in. Meanwhile H. E. the Viceroy has asked the resigning members to continue in charge of their portfolios.

New Jobs For Zaheer And Shafaat

Tonight's announcement contains some surprises. The names of Mr. Ghazanfar Ali Khan and Mr. J. C. Mamdal were not mentioned in forecasts. A report current during the last two or three days that Mr. Jinnah would include a scheduled caste name in his list was not treated with seriousness. Provinces represented in the League's list are Bombay, the Punjab, N.-W. F. P., Bengal and U. P. The reconstituted Cabinet will have four Caste Hindus, two Scheduled Caste representatives, four Muslim Leaguers, a Congress Muslim, a Christian, a Sikh and a Parsi.

SARAT BOSE'S RESIGNATION.

Mr. Sarat Bose's resignation is another unexpected feature. Sir Shafaat and Syed Ali Zaheer are believed to be marked out for important diplomatic assignments abroad.

Allocation of portfolios to the new members will be made after the Viceroy and Pandit Nehru return from their tour.

With the League's entry into the Interim Government, the Central Assembly session beginning on October 28 will be without that pungency and acrimony of debate which the League in opposition would have caused. Government business is now assured of speedy and safe passage in a House in which Government members will have an overwhelming majority. The European Group of nine members will probably form the principal Opposition.

CONGRESS CABINET SUMMONED

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15, (API): Pandit Nehru and other Congress members of the Cabinet and Maulana Azad had a conference with Mahatma Gandhi this evening.

It is announced that a meeting of the Congress Working Committee will be held on Wednesday, October 23, at Bhangi Colony, New Delhi, at 2 p.m. to consider the situation in East Bengal and the re-constitution of the Interim Government and other matters. Those who were invited to attend the last meeting are again invited to do so.

Interim Cabinet Meets A Day Earlier

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15, (API): The weekly meeting of the Cabinet was held today the Viceroy presiding. Ordinarily these meetings are held on Wednesdays but as Pandit Nehru is leaving tomorrow morning on his frontier tour and as His Excellency is leaving for Bombay soon, the meeting was called a day earlier.

AMERICAN REACTIONS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (Reuter):—Reports from Delhi that the Muslim League is willing to enter the Interim Government are welcomed here, but officials are cautious about commenting before official confirmation is available.

It is considered that this development might prove fully as important to India's future as establishment of the Interim Government itself.

Dr. Anup Singh, Secretary of the "National Committee for Inda's Freedom", told Reuter: "We are more than gratified at Muslim League's decision to participate in the Interim Government No matter how legitimate Mr. Jinnah's grievance may be against the Congress, neither he nor any other patriotic Indian can afford this perennial deadlock.

Innumerable internal problems are crying for solution and the world situation is fretting more explosive. We would like to see an end of the Viceroy's mediation and the beginning of heart to heart talks among Indians. We are sure, when entrusted with responsibility, they will find more in common to work for than to fight over."

The reported Muslim decision received front—page display in Washington 'Post', Washington 'Times', 'Herald', and 'Baltimore Sun'.

'Learn To Die Without Killing'

Freedom Will Never Come To People Who Behave Like Animals, Says Mahatma

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15, (A.P.I.): Mahatma Gandhi addressing the prayer audience this evening said that he felt sure that they must all be as sorrowful as he was to-day at the terribly sad news which had appeared in the newspapers. First of all there was the flood havoc in Assam. Thousands were homeless. Property worth lakhs had been destroyed and many lives lost. That was an act of nature.

NEWS FROM NAOKHALI.

But what was far worse than the news from Assam was the fact that mankind had run riot in Noakhali in Eastern Bengal. The papers said that the Hindus who are in a very small minority there were being attacked by Muslims. He did not want to dwell on details of happenings. He knew his doctrine did not count for much among people to-day and yet it was his duty to tell them whether they listened to him and acted up to his advice or not. Mahatma Gandhi himself had never thought that there was any difference between Hindu, Muslim, Christian, Parsi or any other. All were brothers, sons of the same soil. But even brothers fought furiously with each other sometimes and this was what was happening to-day between Hindu and Muslim.

CONGRESS CREED.

The Mahatma added that ever since he had heard the news of Noakhali, —indeed ever since the blood bath of Calcutta,—he had been wondering what his duty was. God would show him the way. But what he wanted to tell them and through them a wider public was that it was the duty of every Hindu not to harbour any thoughts of revenge on Muslims in spite of what they did in Noakhali. That was the creed of the Congress. It had brought them far. But was it only an expedient against the British, as some people said, because they were so strong and that violence was to be used against their own brothers? That was wholly wrong. Congress had an overwhelming majority of Hindu members, but it belonged to all communities. Maulana Sahib had served for years and through it everybody, irrespective of caste or creed

LEARN TO DIE.

His name was up again, but he was withdrawing it and Mahatma Gandhi had supported his withdrawal. He was an ill man to-day. The new President was Shri Kripalani whom he had first met in Champaran. He was going not only to wear a crown of thorns, but also lie on a bed of thorns. It was a much more difficult place than even the Cabinet members were filling. He would have to teach people how to die. That was the only way to end this fratricidal war,—to learn how to die without killing. A friend from Ahmedabad had sometime ago written and said that people knew how to return blow for blow. They had learnt how to be fearless of going to jail, but they had not learnt how to die without killing. It was up to him and others who believed in non-violence to teach people this supreme way by personal act.

LEAGUE'S DECISION.

Concluding Mahatma Gandhi said the Muslim League was, according to press reports, coming into the Interim Government. He hoped they were coming in to work as brothers. If they did, all would be well. And just as he had exhorted Hindus not to slay Mussalmans nor harbour illwill towards them, so he appealed to the Muslim League, even if they wanted to fight for Pakistan, to fight cleanly and in a friendly manner. Qaid-e-Azam had said how everyone would receive justice in Pakistan. It was as good as Pakistan where they were in the majority and he implored them to treat Hindus as blood brothers and not as enemies. He hoped both Hindus and Muslims would vow not to hurt each other hence-forth. Unless they did this he would like to proclaim from the housetops that they had not got and would never get the independence they craved for. No man or people could be free who behaved as animals.

MAHATMA'S HEALTH

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15, (U.P.I.): Dr. M. D. D. Gilder, Health Minister, Bombay examined Mahatma Gandhi once again yesterday. Owing to the feeling of tiredness which was detected by Drs. Gilder and Sushila Nayyar when they examined Gandhiji three or four days earlier, Gandhiji has decided to observe silence in a modified form for an indefinite period.

Interviewed by the United Press of India in this connection, Mr. Pyarelal, Gandhiji's Secretary, made the following statement:—

"Gandhiji has taken to indefinite silence in order to conserve energy so far as casual visitors and normal work are concerned. This, however, will not prevent him from speaking as usual at the evening prayer gatherings or whenever it may be necessary to speak in connection with his present mission to Delhi."

WANTED SCOTTISH GANDHI

LONDON, Oct. 15. (Reuter): The need of the highlands for a Scottish Gandhi to inspire village industries as Mahatma Gandhi's spinning wheel had acted as inspiration to Indian cottage industries, was urged by Captain J. MacLeod, National Liberal Member of Parliament for Ross and Cromarty, at a private party in Parliament last night.

Captain MacLeod, organised the centre for disposal of articles woven by Scottish crofters and is an authority on village industry.

WALK-OVER FOR KRIPALANI

Maulana Azad Withdraws From Contest For Congress Gadi

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15. (A.P.I.): Following Maulana Azad's withdrawal, Acharya Kripalani's election as President of the Congress is assured. An announcement from the A.I.C.C. Office in this connection is expected soon.

A. I. C. C. Statement

The General Secretary of the All-India Congress Committee has issued the following statement to the press:

The Presidential election is scheduled to take place on October 20, 1946. The names of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad and Acharya J. B. Kripalani were proposed. Maulana Abul Kalam Azad having withdrawn Acharya J. B. Kripalani remains the only candidate and will be duly elected.

AZAD REFUSES TO CONTEST ELECTION

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15.—Maulana Abul Kalam Azad has issued the following statement:

"The election of the President of the forthcoming session of the Congress is due on the 20th, and several Provinces have proposed my name and I have received numerous messages from Congressmen and women urging me to seek re-election. But the reasons which influenced my decision in April last not to seek re-election hold good even today.

I am fully conscious of the desire of all the friends and colleagues who would like me to resume the heavy responsibilities I have shouldered for six years continually, but I regret to say that I must disappoint them for the reasons which I frankly stated before the country six months ago.

"I thank all the colleagues who have put forward my name as a candidate for election, and all the others who have signified their support, but I cannot give my consent to being considered as a candidate for election."

Sarat Bose's Appeal To Governor: Armed Police Rushed To Noakhali

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15, (U.P.I.): Mr. Sarat Chandra Bose, Minister for Power, Works and Mine in the Interim Government, has written to the Viceroy drawing his attention to the organised lawlessness in certain areas in the Noakhali District, Eastern Bengal.

Mr. Bose has also wired to the Bengal Governor requesting him to take a strong action immediately to put down organised murder and lawlessness.

THOUSANDS MASSACRED

CALCUTTA, Oct. 15 (API): The Bengal Press Advisory Committee has issued the following Press Note:

An account of the shocking events which have been taking place in the district of Noakhali since October 10, is given in a press statement issued today by Mr. Ashutosh Lahiri, general Secretary of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha.

In his statement, Mr. Lahiri says that in an area consisting of about 250 square miles, the inhabitants surrounded by riotous mobs are being massacred, their houses being burnt, their women folk being forcibly carried away and thousands being subjected to forcible conversion. The number of persons massacred has to be counted not in hundreds but in thousands. People coming from Chandpur town state that the fire spread conflagration is visible from the town itself. It is yet difficult to gauge the extent of destruction of this organised gigantic hooliganism. A representative of the Hindu Mahasabha who arrived in Calcutta from Noakhali says that some thousands of women have been carried away, atleast 10,000 have been subjected to forcible conversion and atrocities of an indescribable character have been perpetrated on many of them.

NO PREVENTIVE ACTION TAKEN

"The fact remains", Mr. Lahiri adds, "that such events have been possible inspite of the lesson of the great Calcutta killing and the timely warning given to the authorities about the alarming situation developing in this district. I myself informed His Excellency the Governor as well as the Commissioner of the Division a few days ago about this explosive situation but no preventive action whatsoever was taken. In this particular district certain individuals led by an ex-M.L.A. had been openly inciting the people for the last three months to acts of lawlessness and numerous public meetings had been held for this purpose. But inspite of repeated demands from the public no restraint was put on the activities of these mischief-mongers and they were freely allowed to inflame the

Americans Should Oppose Truman's Partiality For Jews

Jinnah Supports Alnaqib In Condemning U. S. President's Latest Proposals

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15 (API): An earnest hope that the great American nation will not allow President Truman to succumb to the influence of Jewery and be a party to force and perpetuate the gravest wrong done to the Arabs of Palestine is expressed by Mr. M. A. Jinnah, President of the All India Muslim League in a telegram to Mr. Uzzuldin Alnaqib, Vice-President, Chamber of Deputies, Iraq, Baghdad.

Mr. Jinnah sent this telegram in reply to a telegram received from Mr. Uzzuldin Alnaqib which condemned "the unjust declarations and undue interferences by Mr. Truman in the affairs of Palestine, his obvious partiality in favour of Zionists and his continued hostility to the Arab peoples and his disregard of Moslem feelings".

Following is the text of the telegram received from Mr. Uzzuldin Alnaqib:—

"The unjust declarations and undue interferences by Mr. Truman in the affairs of Palestine, his obvious partiality in favour of Zionists and his continued hostility to the Arab peoples and his disregard of Moslem feelings besides being contrary to the pledges made for guaranteeing to all peoples the freedom of self-determination and the security of their countries have caused strong resentment and aversion. This undue interference and affected sympathy used as a screen to obtain Jewish electors voted in U.S.A. are among the factors which encouraged the Zionists to continue their criminal activities such as murder, sabotage and arson. This strange partiality shown from time to time by President Truman in the name of humanity for destroying the lawful original inhabitants of Palestine and replacing them by alien people has now been known to all who have realized its glaring injustice. The Arabs vis-a-vis this hostilities attitude of President Truman towards their vital cause in Palestine cannot but meet his declaration with strong condemnation and insist that he will never by such injustice and hostility overcome right and injustice on which the Arabs rely in the realisation of their just cause.

Following is the reply sent by Mr. Jinnah to Mr. Uzzuldin Alnaqib:—

"Your telegram. I join you condemn declaration latest proposals of President Truman. The most unjust and against every cannon of morality. Right and every principle of justice with Arab causa. Muslim India fully support Arab national struggle Palestine. I earnestly hope great American Nation will not allow President Truman to succumb to influence Jewery and be a party to force and perpetuate the gravest wrong to the Arabs of Palestine.

ARAB RETORT TO TRUMAN

Why Dictate To Palestine When U. S. Can Take In Jews In World

PARIS, Oct. 15, (Reuter): Abdul Rahman Azzam Pasha, the Secretary-General of Arab League, said in Paris to-day that he had been trying for the past year to understand what President Truman wanted in connection with the Palestine problem.

"To me it is strange that a big country like the United States which can take all the Jews in the world without changing the balance of its population, is trying to dictate to a small country like Palestine and oblige it to take 100.000 Jews which would make a fundamental difference and change the natural majority in Palestine", he said.

Azzam Pasha indicated that the Arab League was not entirely satisfied with the provisions relating to French North Africa in the new French Constitution approved in yesterday's referendum. "The Arab League wants its brothers in North Africa to be free and independent", he said. "I do not think they will be satisfied with citizenship alone, but will also want ther independence".

Azzam Pasha who attended the recent London Conference on Palestine, is returning to London this week. He may meet Ismail Sidky Pasha, Egyptian Prime Minister, who is due in London towards the end of the week for talks with the British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Ernest Bevin, on the revision of Anglo-Egyptian Treaty.

PLEA FOR RURAL UNIVERSITIES

T. S. A. Chettiar's Address At Annamalai Convocation

CHIDAMBARAM, Oct. 15 (API): The 16th convocation of the Annamalai University was held today when Mr. T. S. Avinasilingam Chettiar, Minister for Education, Government of Madras, delivered his convocation address to the new graduates in Tamil. This was the first time in the history of the Province that a convocation address was delivered in the regional language. H. E. Sir Archibald Nye, Chancellor of the University presided.

Mr. Avinasilingam Chettiar said: Our universities should be representatives of our civilisation and culture. They must be the instruments through which our culture and civilisation can be spread. The glory of all institutions from the elementary schools to the colleges and the universities depends upon the type of persons that go out of it. Mere intellectual education will not be real education. It is unfortunate that our universities today are not in touch with life.

DISADVANTAGES OF ENGLISH MEDIUM

"It is unfortunate', continued Mr. Avinasilingam. "That English being the medium in the universities and in the colleges has stood in the way of the spread of higher kowledge in the country among the common people. Because English is the medium of instruction in the colleges the highest knowledge and the greatest thoughts of the world have not been made available to them in their own languages, The result is that all the intellects which these men possess have gone to waste.

WANTED RURAL UNIVERSITIES

"If the masses of our people in the villages were also to be educated in higher education, we must evolve a cheaper and more popular scheme of rural universities. I think the time has come, when we should make an attempt of starting rural universities, in which young men who did not have the opportunities of having even secondary education should be enabled to get higher knowledge. Naturally, the instruction must be in their own languages. A mass of literature will have to be produced before these institutions are started, but I have no doubt that these universities, when started, will be of lasting benefit to thousands of young men and women throughout the land. This is all the more necessary now because, if democracy is to be enlightened and efficient in this country, the common man will have to be properly educated".

Concluding, the Minister said: The essence of our education should be to infuse the spirit of service. Let the India that is to be born be greater than the ancient India and let us have the privilege and the strength to take upon ourselves such efforts which will make it possible.

Similarly, the wheel of life too has important and necessary links and one of them is health and hygiene. The role of Hamam is to enforce personal cleanliness and so banish dirt and disease.

W. I. Football (Final)

Third Title Of Season For Trades

Thomas's Two Goals Pave Way To Victory

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

Trades	3
Movement Control	1

By accounting for Movement Control in the final of the W. I. Football Championship the Trades have achieved the rare distinction of winning three consecutive trophies at Bombay's soccer headquarters this season. The score is a fair index of the match for the Trades were certainly in a grand form this evening. From the very start of the match they started attacking and it was not long before Parab placed them one ahead of their rivals.

Parab was in his good form, playing well and combining excellently with Bhimrao on his right flank. And it was as a matter of fact his cheming that resulted in the Trades getting the lead a second time after Stocks had dram level for the soldiers. He sent an astute pass down the centre between two defenders and Thomas chased and shot low to the left of custodian Lambert to get a really brilliant goal.

After the teams had crossed over on terms of equality, Trades once more plunged into the attack and helped by their master craftsman Rashad soon had the opposeing defence baffled Thomas scored the second goal for his side and might have scored one more shortly after had he not hit the ball straight into a defender. He compensated for this, however, when a little later he collected a somewhat difficult pass from Dhakuram playing well this evening, and hit it high in the centre to outwit Lambert. The soldiers tried hard thereafter but the local side was in no mood to be trifled with and the few attempts that Movement Control made proved to be abortive.

It is difficult to single out for special praise any individual in a pack whose team work was always sound and unselfish. In the pivotal position Rashad put rings round his opponents on more occasions than one. One such incident towards the close of the match resulted in Stone of Movement Control losing his temper. He always distributed the ball cleverly and acted as pivot, should both as a defender and an attacker.

In the front line all the forwards were in good form and were seen to function more smoothly than on any other occasion this season except probably in their match against the brilliant combination of BBRC. Dhakuram was excellent with his runs down the line and clever passes. Thomas was as good as ever in his inside-left position. And although Raymond did not score on this occasion, as a leader of the attack he showed sound judgment in his distribution to his flankman. Parab might have netted at least one more goal had he not missed from point blank range after Dhakuram had put in a solo run down the line. Bhimrao was good with his fast centres and was always a danger to the opponents.

In the deep defence both Manuel and Rathnam, particularly the latter, distinguished themselves by the intelligent clearances the effected. Sanjiva between the posts never let his side down.

As for the losers, their forwards had very little of the play, most of the time the ball was rolling towards the Movement Control goal-post. Robinson once again gave a sterling display and it might not be unfair to say that his side might have lost by a greater margin if he had not been in the picture. Stone played in the right-half position this time but this made very little difference as the bare-footed Indian forwards invariably proved too fast for him. Right back Metcalfe saved at least one certain goal almost from the goal line when he cleared a fast shot from Bhimrao.

The teams:

Trades: Sanjiva; Manuel & Rathnam; Humphries Rashad & Govind; Bhimrao, Parab, Raymond, Thomas and Dhakuram.

Movement Control: Lambert; Metcalfe & Clafton; Stone, Robinson & Goldsmith; Stocks, Gardener, Thomson, Ambrosi & Ramace.

Referee: Jayaram.

League Daily Demands Restraint Order Against 'Times Of India'

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

Hearing of the application filed by Mr. Mohamad Sadik Shaik Ahmad, Editor, "Muslim Times", Bombay, praying for a restraint order against the Editor, Printer and Publisher of the "Times Of India" was adjourned to October 23 by the Chief Presidency Magistrate this morning. It was stated that the respondents were not yet in receipt of the notices.

Counsel for Mr. Ahmad submitted that "immediate remedy" was necessary as the "Times Of India" continued to publish riot reports mentioning names of localities which was "against the press convention." To prevent this 'somersault' of the "Times Of India" from gathering momentum he pleaded for an interim undertaking for the non-mention of the affected localities.

The Magistrate smiled at the suggestion and adjourned hearing of the application to October 23.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

THE NATION'S HEALTH

The Health Ministers' Conference, which held its session at Delhi last week, had huge tasks before it, but now at least we feel sure that they will not be shirked on financial, constitutional or other grounds. Pandit Nehru, who inaugurated the Conference, justly emphasised their importance and urgency by pointing out that, while many political and other problems might brook some delay, problems like Health, if not attended to in time, could not be rectified. He admitted that hitherto the problems of health were neglected, mainly on the ground of lack of funds, and rightly contended that if funds could be available for big wars, there was no reason why they should not be provided for to fight against ill-health, which was like an enemy from within and weakened the nation". He clinched the point by remarking that the producer of a country's wealth should be physically strong and expenditure on him should not be grudged. Sir Shafaat Ahmed Khan, Health Member of the Interim Government also agreed that "if we are serious in our desire to build up the people's health and do not pay mere lip service to an ideal, we must devote a large part of our resources to health." From these views of two Members of the Government we may safely infer that hereafter at least the Central Government will not fail to bear a good part of the huge cost of the health programme formulated by the Bhore Committee, whose ten-year programme is estimated to cost not less than Rs. 400 crores.

The Bhore plan contemplates in its health organisation a primary centre for every 40,000 people, a 30-bed hospital for every 200,000 and a secondary centre with a 200-bed hospital for every district. This calls for a huge number of doctors, nurses, health visitors and other health workers. And there is to be adequate provision for research work of the highest grade in all departments of medical relief. There are also important questions of public hygiene, nutrition, school feeding, maternity and child welfare services and numerous others which demand serious consideration. The Health Member announced that a nursing college had been opened which would provide a course for a university degree in nursing, the Malaria Institute of India would be expanded and legislation for regulation of pharmacy, dental and nursing professions would be undertaken. For the rest, the Central Government proposes to implement the Bhore Committee's recommendations by setting up a committee to advise Government regarding the establishment of an All-India institute for training and research, providing facilities at Calcutta for licentiates from all parts of India to take their M.B.B.S. degree and by sending selected students abroad for training. The Ministers' Conference has not only endorsed the objectives proposed by the Bhore Committee but has also done well to recommend that adequate provision should be made in the Centre and the provinces for research in and the application of the scientific method for the investigation of the indigenous systems like Ayurveda and Unani for starting schools and colleges for training for diploma and degree courses in indigenous systems of medicine, and for post-graduate courses in Indian Medicine for graduates in Western Medicine. All these and other necessary items, including Homoeopathic institutions, will doubtless involve huge cost but it should be possible for the country to bear it if economies can be effected without prejudice to efficiency and if the Central Government helps the Provincial Governments liberally in meeting the cost. It is encouraging to note that the Health Member has assured Provincial Health Ministers that the Central Government would help them by giving substantial grants and otherwise.

As regards economies, if the provinces co-operate and co-ordinate their work, much duplication can be avoided and economies effected. For instance, provinces can, with great advantage, pool their resources for reserch work, though the Central Government must bear the full cost of advanced research in All-India institutes. Much duplication can be avoided if different provinces have different institutions for various specialised courses, open to all Indian students. The best way to ensure economy in the long run is to put the greatest possible emphasis on everything calculated to prevent disease rather than to cure it. Thus public hygiene, with special reference to the provision of ample pure water, wide promotion of health knowledge and physical training and various other similar measures will not only keep down the cost of medical relief but will also promote public health considerably. We trust Provincial Health ministers will soon formulate and publish their respective plans.

Frankly Speaking

Indonesian-Dutch Truce

The military truce that has been signed at Batavia is a welcome and hopeful development. The terms of the truce represent on balance a greater sacrifice on the part of the Indonesian Republic, which constitutes another clear proof of the earnest desire of Indonesian leaders to achieve a settlement through peaceful negotiations. The basis of the truce is the stabilising of the present ratio of "Allied"—that is British and Dutch—and Indonesian forces. If, on the one hand, it means that the present ratio is to be maintained it also means, on the other hand, that the Dutch will replace, man for man, the withdrawing British troops. This is not what the Indonesians had been demanding. The concession that they have made is a great gesture.

Dutch Bonafides

Will it be reciprocated? This remains to be seen. The background of the present negotiations from the Dutch side is provided by the official statements recently made by Dutch Ministers and, significantly, by the name of the new Dutch army which is replacing the British, that is the "December Seventh Division" in commemoration of Queen Wilhelmina's wartime proclamation. All that has meant only one thing: the intention of the Dutch to maintain their hold on Indonesia in a new form. The Dutch technique for dealing with the Indonesian situation has been two-fold. They have procrastinated the negotiaitons and, in the meantime, gradually increased their forces, a good proportion of which has been trained and equipped by the British. They may regard the truce as merely something which renders it possible for them to bring into Indonesia the full strength of the "December Seventh" army and deploy it at key points before forcing a show down. The temptation will be great but let us hope wisdom and a sense of realism will prevail with the Dutch, who ought to realise and should be told by their friends and allies, the British, that free Indonesia has come to stay.

The Fourth Republic

The Fourth Republic has at last been born in France. It is a great event, but also an event of uncertain possibilities. A British commentator describes the result of Sunday's Referendum on the new Constitution as a victory for nobody. The Ayes, led by the three main parties, the M.R.P. the Communists and the Socialists, have had it by a narrow majority of a million and a half and the abstentions were nearly equal to the Noes. Two conclusions have been drawn from this. General de Gaulle's intervention swelled the numbers both of Noes and absentions and, secondly, the M.R.P. was weakened by reason of many of its supporters not wishing to go against the General. The figures and the division in M.R.P. ranks has led many observers to forecast that at the forthcoming elections, the Communist Party will supplant the M.R.P., with France having for the first time a Communist Premier, namely M. Maurice Thorez.

Uneasy Future

Such a development along with the end of the present co-alition is likely if the Communists and Socialists together form a majority in the French Chamber. But there is also another likelihood. In the event of M. Bidault and General de Gaulle coming to some sort of arrangement, however, loose, the M.R.P. may yet retain its present position and in increased strength too. This is equally likely, though it is not likely, that M.R.P. and other groups will together be stronger than a communist—Socialist combination. And in the event of the usual difficulties between Communists and Socialists cropping up, the new France will have to face the old Party confusions. It appears that the childhood of the Fourth Republic is not going to be smooth or easy.

In paragraph 7 it is stated that he was the author of a Gujarati Historical Novel 'Karan Ghelo'. It was not he, but his father, Nandshankar T. Mehta, who was the author of the famous novel.

UNIVERSITY FOR KARNATAK

Govt. To Appoint Committee To Report On Nature Of Proposal

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

The Government of Bombay is anxious that there should be a separate University for Karnatak and proposes shortly to appoint a committee to consider and report on the nature of the proposed university and other kindred matters, says a press note issued by Director of Information.

The Government has already accepted the principle of establishing regional universities in the province. Public opinion in Maharashtra was the first to voice the demand for a regional university and the Government appointed an authoritative committee under the Chairmanship of the Rt. Hon'ble Dr. M. R. Jaykar to inquire to the question of a university for Maharashtra. On receipt of the Committee's report the Government announced the acceptance in principle of the need to establish a university at Poona.

The Government understands that educationists and others in Gujarat are also doing preliminary work with regard to the proposal for a university for Gujarat.

WELL-EARNED RESPITE

Scope For Reason And Co-operation To Prevail In Interim Government

(From A Special Representative.)

NEW DELHI, Oct. 13.

As I said in a previous despatch, agreement regarding the League entry into the Interim Government was in sight by Friday evening. Having had close opportunity to come into contact with every section of responsible opinion including the softly voiced but well-documented and learned opinion of some super-bureaucrats, I was able to appreciate how quickly Mr. Jinnah takes a decision, once he is convinced that in the circumstances of the prevailing situation, that is the only decision to take.

SPLENDID ISOLATION.

But one is distressed to find that the great Muslim leader still persists in cultivating the habit of remaining in splendid isolation. Of his present Working Committee he cannot possibly hold a high opinion. They are a curious assemblage. One section which takes care to be silent in the press or on the public platform is the most reactionary. Another, which has been vociferous in proclaiming its attitude of intransigeance, was found to be in a mellowed and surprisingly reasonable mood on Friday last. A little bird whispers to me that this change in attitude was due to the difference this section noticed in the outlook of two Excellencies. The one who had his emissary right on the spot was reported to have advised that the old policy of staying out should be continued, as that would continue to queer the Congress pitch. Another Excellency, a learned and far-seeing administrator of considerable experience pointed out the folly of still wandering in the wilderness. This common-sense view prevailed and was differentially put to Mr. Jinnah. A third section of the League Working Committee was more concerned about the impending distribution of loaves and fishes. Little need be said about it.

FED UP.

As regards these protracted negotiations, among the local Muslim intellectuals, I found the feeling largely prevalent that they were "about fed up" with the whole business. One of them declared that the real trouble would arise when the League element and the Congress group in the Interim Government began to function together. He did not for a moment believe that a cabinet could fail to work without developing a sense of joint responsibility. Reckless agitators, he said, when they turn themselves into administrators, learn rapidly to shed their angularities. Three points now emerge. The Cabinet or the Executive Council—and in the Government of India Gazette born appellations are used—running the day to day administration will not be directly concerned with "groups and sections, which first". Another is that all members of the Cabinet will be bound to pull together in the maintenance of law and order. The third is that India will be bound to busy developing a strong and practical industrial policy. In shaping that policy the man who holds an executive portfolio and talks about Hindu, or Sikh, or Muslim interest first, will be looked upon as a fool and feel himself that he is a fool.

RESPITE.

The question now is, not what the personnel of the League section in the Cabinet will be, but with what mentality this section enters it. Political realist as he is, Mr. Jinnah knows that the two-nation theory cannot be pursued from within the Cabinet by these nominees of his. An American friend of mine said he would isolate the issue. Fireworks would be reserved for the Constituent Assembly. The much needed respite deserves to be utilised for the promotion of reason and constructive endeavour in quarters which refused to entertain the very idea.

A HINT FROM MOSCOW

(CONTRIBUTED.)

At the plenary session of the Peace Conference at Paris on Monday M. Molotov was pleased to make a penetrating inquiry. "Why should India have striven so hard to obtain a settlement of the Danube question", he asked. He wondered what interest India had in this question. He intimated to his brother delegates, all striving to attain international peace, while "keeping the powder dry" that if they had available at the Conference table the voice of a representative of genuine India", they would have had the pleasure of "observing a more objective and impartial attitude in this matter" on the part of India.

M. Molotov needs to exercise patience. This country is on the road to secure an independent voice at peace conferences which would tell them with all the emphasis at its command what the Asiatic nations, led by India, think of western policies and stratagems which lamentably and inevitably lead to disruption of cultural achievement and colossal human carnage. But, meanwhile, will not M. Molotov consider why India should have been obliged to agree with Britain in this particular matter of opening the gates of the Danube to suit to present Soviet foreign policy? If he could and would, he would look upon the conduct of the British Government's Indian nominees at Paris with a more merciful eye.

AN OLD CONTROVERSY.

Indian students of European history cannot fail to notice that the desire "for warm water" which Tsar Alexander the Third so vividly and so often expressed, continues to surge in the heart of M. Molotov. The Dardanelles question, again opened up by the Soviet Foreign Commissar, much to Turkey's headache, is only an item in the policy of securing freedom of navigation for Soviet shipping not only to what Russia bitterly regarded and still regards as an "Anglo-French lake" viz. the Mediterranean, but to the main waterways of the continent.

To Eastern observers of the foreign policy of Western European powers this desire has always appeared to be just and reasonable. Prince Poruschecoff and M. Isvolsky, to mention only two well-known names amongst Tsarist Russia's seasoned diplomats, had continued to impress upon France and Britain the necessity of helping to appease this desire. They used to point out also that the predominently Slav population of the Balkans had ethnic affinities with Mother Russia which made the various Balkan states desire uninterrupted navigation facilities with Russia. But so great was the impotence military and political, of the Tsarist system that Russian hopes and ambitions were persistently ignored.

Now they cannot be. The Russian Bear is playing about with its huge paws. It puts its weight about. According to the tenets of traditional Anglo-French diplomacy the Bear behaves like a bull in a China shop. America, hesitatingly anxious to take a hand in solving the jag saw puzzle of Europe, is sometimes astonished, and sometimes aggrieved. It does not want to quarrel with the Bear, nor does it desire to allow it too much freedom of action. And then comes upon the scene Mr. Churchill that great artist in vituperation, making speeches which must be sour to the taste of Mr. Byrnes and which make the Kremlin still more suspicious of the Anglo-Saxon views on secure international peace.

INDIA'S ATTITUDE.

Only a few years ago Mr. Eden, who must have known what he was talking about, declared "There is in our mind no reservation when we say that we wish to work with the Soviet Union in the fullest and closest collaboration". Recent speechees by prominent men of his party do not indicate that there is such a desire. The present Indian delegation which works as only an appendage to the British has taken a limited but not necessarily an absolutely wrong view of the Danube demand. But we are confident the Interim Government will take due note of the hint from Moscow.

TETE-A-TETE

WITHOUT COMMENT—

BERLIN, Oct. 15 (APA): German newspapers and politicians in all four zones of occupation are forbidden to criticise the decisions of Potsdam and any future conferences of the Allied powers on Germany in a new directive published yesterday by the Allied control authority.....

This step was taken after the Russians had protested in the control council against utterances of certain German politicians which were printed in the British and American-licensed press here, and after the Americans and British had counted with protests against articles printed in Soviet-controlled papers which were regarded as critical of the policies of the western powers.

Addressing a Conference of Provincial Labour Ministers, Mr. Jagjivan Ram, Interim Government Labour Member, mentioned a suggestion that all major legislation in regard to Labour should be Central.

This must immediately be clarified.

The meeting with Mr. Churchill ought to be a roaring success, resulting in complete agreement regarding the future of Britain's Indian Empire.

Mr. S. C. Joshi the Government of India's Chief Labour Commissioner has finally confirmed his earlier interim conclusion that the All-India Trade Union Congress is more representative and active than the Indian Federation of Labour.

Critically examining the results of the Paris Conference, M. Molotov particularly mentioned the Indian Delegation's attitude re the Danube question and said that a Delegation representing the genuine voice of India would have observed "a more objective and impartial attitude in this matter".

Yes, but suppose if and when an occasion arose a genuine Indian Delegation observed an objective and impartial attitude in the matter of the Dardanelles or Italian Colonies?

DON'T KILL THE NAZI BEASTS

That Would Only Make Them "Saints"!

(By A. RAAB, who was deprived of German Citizenship as an Enemy of the Nazi State by the German Government on 22-4-1938 and sentenced to death in contumacium).

Everybody, who is intrinsically familiar from own experience with the atrocities committed by the Nazis and their Bismark-German-fellow-gangsters, those like Raeder and Papen, must rejoice at the news that these Nazi-leaders have been sentenced to death. I, as one among those, who passed through Nazi-gaols, who mourns the death and deportation to unknown destinations of his next relatives at the hands of the All-German—(not specific Nazi)—Gestapo, have felt ever since a great satisfaction that the Nazi-bosses had to pass through the nine months' long moral tortures of a trial in which they were even forced to watch at the cinema-screen some of the horrible scenes and piles of corpses in the Concentration Camps, which were the main pillars of their power and their accumulated riches.

Had Dante lived to witness the moral tortures which this trial has meant to the accused in the docks, he would have added this specific chapter about Hell's tortures to his "Divine Comedy".

Now, after the accused have passed this first stage of their own tribulations, what is to happen to the doomed men? Are the Allies about to commit the blunder to kill them?

Killing them would mean to render the greatest service to the Nazi and dictator-doctrines and the greatest disservice to humanity which is longing for a just punishment of this scum of mankind.

MILLIONS OF VICTIMS

All of the accused, Schacht, Fritzsche and Papen alike were active partners and accessories to the murder of at least 12 million men (this figures was stated in the Nuremberg Court) who died—during the war—(the pre-war victims were not considered as worthwhile to be mentioned in this trial in spite of the fact that they may amount to another 4 million men)—in concentration-camps whilst doing forced labour and at the hands of the police.

Not Jews only, were the victims as is mistakenly mostly assumed. In one Camp, when it was over-run by the Allies there were found 32,000 inmates, 3,000 of them were Jews only. As inquiries stand at present some 4 million Jews are among those above quoted 12 million dead. Poles, Czechs, Danes, French, Belgians and all sorts of German and Austrian Leftists count among these victims.

The community that has suffered most, are the Gypsies, a fact which is as good as unknown. 13,000 of them lived in Nazi-occupied Europe. 13,000 of them were made to die as human guinea-pigs.

But we have not to figure in communities, or in national or racial groups. We are concerned with the sufferings and the death of human beings under the moral, spiritual, Governmental and forthwith active partnership of the Nuremberg-accuseds.

SHOULD THESE CONDEMNED CRIMINALS AGAINST HUAMNITY DIE?

NO! that is the reply of all of their victims who survived their tortures.

NO! is the mute cry of those 12 to 16 millions of their victims from their graves!

DO NOT KILL THEM! KEEP THEM ALIVE!

Let them, as life-long prisoners, with the death-sentence hovering over their heads pass through the same sufferings as millions of their victims had to pass. Most of the doomed men expressed the desire to die as quick as possible because they considered death as a relief from their present sufferings.

Death is no punishment for their crimes. Death is a relief to them. Keep them jailed, strictly watched by wardens taken from the ranks of those who survived Nazi Concentration Camps. Give them the same starvation rations which we got, when we were their prisoners. Withhold from them mail, newspapers and radio, so as they did with us.

But do not beat and kick them, in spite of the fact that they dealt this way with us, because we, as Democrats, refuse to emulate this specific feature of dictatorship.

Let them thus feel that they are but the scum of mankind, let them live under conditions which will scare away all future would-do-dictators.

Such treatment would be a just punishment. And those millions of their dead victims and those who are still alive will find it a just treatment.

AND THEY, THE DEAD ARE IN FACT THE PUBLIC PROSECUTORS AND THE JUDGES OF GERMANY'S BOSSES.

Those Allied officials who judged them acted only on behalf of the victims.

"SAINT" IRMA GRESSE

Irma Gresse, the female beast of Belsen, was hanged and along with her already thousands of the German, Japanese Belgian, French, Norwegian, etc., criminals and quislings.

And Germany's fanatical youth the still alive and kicking—Nazi girls' movements on top of all, are already weaving a saint-culture around Irma Gresse—a "SAINT" who died on the altar of the fatherland, of a future Greater Germany. Should we kill Germany's criminal leaders we render the greatest service to the everywhere sprouting leaves of Neo-Fascism.

Let these war criminals find a just democratic punishment. Keep them alive and they may do with their smutty lives what they want to decide themselves. Do not object to their suicides. But for heaven's sake, do not kill them and make them martyrs of today and saints of to-morrow.

A. RAAB.

TRIUMPH FOR COCHIN LABOUR

Port Workers' Strike Called Off

ERNAKULAM, Oct. 15, (A. P. I.): The eight-day old stay-in strike of over 1,000 workers in the Cochin harbour has been called off by the General Secretary of the Cochin Port Workers' Union after a conference with the Harbour Administration.

"The harbour authorities recognised the legitimate demands of labour and have agreed to reinstate the 44 unskilled labourers. It is a triumph for labour", Mr. Menon, Secretary of the Union told the Associated Press at Willingdon Island on coming out from the conference.

Almost all workers of the Harbour workshop and Dry Dock of Cochin Harbour, had been on a stay-in strike since October 5, as a protest against alleged discharge of 44 unskilled workmen without notice. The workers resumed work this morning.

AFRIDIS TURN DOWN SHARIF'S REQUEST

Refuse To Boycott Nehru's Arrival In Tribal Territory

PESHAWAR, Oct. 15, (U. P. I.): "When the Viceroy, or a Governor and other English officials visit the Tribal Territory the Muslim Leaguers do not raise protests. Similarly if Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru comes now what is there to object? We are independent people and as such refuse to be tools in the hands of any organisation".

This, according to Maulana Gharat Gul Afridi who along with thirty Afridis of the Independent Tribal Territory met Pir Saheb Manki Sharif, was the reply given by the Afridis to Pir Saheb's request that the Afridis should give him a statement that Pandit Nehru would not be allowed to visit the Tribal Territory of Afridi Jirgah.

Maulana Gul Afridi stated that in reply to Pir Saheb's invitation to declare allegiance to the Muslim League they said: "Purge your organisation of the Communists, Shias, Qadianis, etc., and then come to invite us to join the League".

Replying to Pir Saheb's statement: "if any harm is done to person of Pandit Nehru, you will be held responsible by the Government that bombs your territory", the Afridis are reported to have declared: "We do not want to harm any one".

PLAN FOR CO-OP. FARMING IN BOMBAY PROVINCE

The Government of Bombay proposes to launch a Co-operative Colony Scheme and to bring under cultivation lands measuring about 263 acres and 25 gunthas in the Kundalika valley situated in the villages of Bahe, Gove and Kille in the Roha taluka of the Kolaba District.

The land which comprises of five blocks, is of uniform level, with ample perennial water supply and of alluvial soil and suitable for irrigational farming. For intensive cultivation of the land, it is proposed to establish a co-operative colony of suitable farmers, who need not necessarily be ex-servicemen, who will take adequate interest in the development of the tract. The volunteer farmers will be paid a monthly stipend of Rs. 10 and given housing accommodation and food during the initial stages of the scheme. Later when the scheme is stabilised the lands brought under cultivation will be leased to a co-operative society, the membership of which will be confined to the volunteers who offer their labour at the initial stage on the conditions stated above.

The day to day work will be done by the volunteer farmers and an Agricultural Assistant, who will also act as manager of the scheme. He will be provided with a clerk and a peon. The Manager will also be 'ex-officio' secretary of a multi-purpose co-operative society of which the volunteer settlers will be members from the very start. The latter will buy their needs of consumer goods from the society, which later will take over agricultural production and marketing of the produce.

Out of the five blocks comprising the total area of the scheme, three blocks covering about 130 acres will be taken up to start with, the remaining two being taken up about a year later when the scheme is under way. Fifteen volunteer farmers will join the scheme at the outset. Preference will be given to the residents of the villages who may be interested in agriculture. The workable scheme will be ready shortly. Persons desiring to join the scheme can give intimation of their willingness to the Director of Agriculture, Bombay Province, Poona, giving necessary details.

25 LAKHS NEEDED FOR MEERUT SESSION

Leaders' Appeal To U. P. Public

The following members of the Council of the United Provinces Congress Committee, namely, Sjts. Damodar Swaroop Seth, Jawahar Lal Nehru, Purushottam Das Tandon, Hafizur Rahman, Hussain Ahmed Madni, Shri Krishna Datt Paliwal, Acharya Jugal Kishore, Muzaffar Hussain, Phool Singh, Algu Rai Shastri, C. B. Gupta, Acharya Narendra Deo, Rafi Ahmad Kidwai, Govind Ballabh Pant, Sampurnanand, Acharya J. B. Kripalani, Mohan Lal Gautam, Lal Bahadur Shastri, Vishwambhar Dayal Tripathi, Shibban Lal Saxena, Malkhan Singh, Kamlapat Tripathi have issued the following appeal to the public of the United Provinces:—

"Within less than two months from today we will be holding the 54th session of the Indian National Congress at Meerut. This is the third time during the last 20 years that we of the United Provinces have been fortunate enough to have this unique honour and privilege. These last 20 years have been a memorable period in the history of our hectic struggle for freedom from foreign yoke. We are today standing at the very gates of the heaven of freedom.

The part which our provinces has played in this struggle has not been apparently insignificant judging by the honour that has been conferred upon us. Let it, therefore, not be said of us that we failed to play an honourable and legitimate part in the last and what may prove to be not very difficult stages of our struggle. Here is an opportunity for all of us to contribute our share according to our faith and resources to enable the Reception Committee to make suitable and satisfactory arrangements for the reception and comfort of thousands of our brave fighters and delegates and lakhs of other people who will be attending the Session to witness the grand spectacle of our march towards freedom and our goal of independence.

It has been estimated that Rs. 25 lakhs will be needed to meet the expenses on the various items of work. An executive committee of the R. C. has been formed which will make the necessary arrangements. It is proposed to collect at least Rs. 10 lakhs by enrolling 20,000 members paying Rs. 50 each. Another Rs. 10 lakhs will have to be raised by the sale of Special Visitors' Tickets which will range from Rs. 10,000 to Rs. 100 and the rest of the amount is to be collected from the sale of ordinary visitors' Tickets.

We, the members of the Council of the Provincial Congress Committee, therefore make an earnest appeal to the general public of these provinces to come forward to enrol themselves as members of the R. C. and to all other persons who can afford to buy Special Visitors' Tickets to help the Committee by their generous donations. Any balance that may be left after meeting the vast and necessary expenditure will go to the coffers of the A.I.C.C. and the P.C.C. The time at our disposal is indeed very short, but we are, however, determined to make the session an unprecedented success. We, therefore, invite the fullest co-operation of all voluntary workers, moneyed persons and the Press. It is our duty as much as our privilege. JAI HIND.

PT. KACHRU TO DEFY KASHMIR BAN?

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15, (U.P.I.): It is learnt that Pandit Sarkanath Kachru, General Secretary, States People's Conference, will be again going to Kashmir soon.

It may be recalled that Pandit Kachru was externed from the Kashmir State and there is still a ban on his entry into the State.

LIBERAL COUNCIL RESOLUTION ON INDUSTRIES BILL

BOMBAY, Tuesday: At a meeting of the Council of the Western India National Liberal Association on Monday evening, the following resolution was adopted:—

The Council of the Western India National Liberal Association views with great concern the haste with which important legislation like the Industrial Relations Bill is rushed through the legislature without affording the public sufficient opportunity to express their views and without referring the same to a Select Committee. Such hasty legislation is bound to result in creating complications and causing hardship to those affected by it".

NO CONTROL OF COCOANUT OIL

Provincial Govts. Will Allot Quotas To Applicants

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15. (A.P.I.): The Government of India have for some time been considering the question of instituting a control over the price of Indian copra and cocoanut oil in consultation with the Government of Madras, Travancore, Cochin and Mysore, says a press note. Such a control will become necessary if prices do not fall substantially with the arrival of the new crop, which is expected to be good both in India and Ceylon.

Since the entire Ceylon crop has been purchased by H.M.G. it will not be possible for some time to import Ceylon cocoanut oil over and above the quota obtained as a direct 'government to Government' transaction. Should any importer, however, find its possible to import the oil from other sources any reasonable assistance to secure it will be given.

Numerous applications are being made to the Government of India for assistance in the matter of supplies. The only oil which the Government are in a position to distribute is the imported oil, which is at present very limited in quantity. The Government of India have placed substantial portions of the imports at the disposal of the Governments of Bengal, Bombay, Sind, the Punjab and Bihar for purposes of distribution, at their discretion, for domestic consumption and small scale industry. Applicants in these area who have not been allotted any oil quota should, therefore, approach the provincial governments.

They should take note of the fact that the bulk of the available cocoanut oil is of Indian origin and that the distribution of this is not controlled.

FORCIBLE ABDUCTIONS

The Bengal Press Advisory Committee has released for publication the following joint telegram received today by the President of the Bengal Provincial Congress Committee from Mr. Kamini Kumar Dutta, leader of the Congress party in the Bengal Legislative Council and Mr. Dhirendra Nath Dutt, Deputy leader of the party in the Bengal Assembly.

"A serious conflagration has destroyed the lives and properties of innocent people in villages under Ramganj thana of Noakhali district. The disturbances have also affected some parts of Begumganj and Lakshimpur thanas. Thousands of hooligans attacked the villagers, compelled them to slaughter their cattle and eat forbidden food. Their houses have been burnt on a mass scale. Hundreds of villagers have been burnt to death and hundreds have been killed otherwise. A large number of girls have been forcibly married and abducted. All places of worship in the affected villages have been desecrated Helpless refugess are coming to Tipperah district. The District Magistrate and the police Superintendent of Noakhali took no steps to prevent the wholesale destruction of properties and lives of innocent villagers. All ingress and egress of the persecuted people to and from the affected areas covering about 200 square miles are completely stopped and all approaches to these areas are being closely guarded by hooligans armed with deadly weapons. Immediate rescue of the oppressed people still alive and of the abducted women is urgently necessary. Rescue without military help is impossible.

SPREADING INTO TIPPERAH

The conflagration, spreading in the neighbouring Tipperah district, has rendered the situation in south Tipperah extremely perilous. Troubles began from the 10th October with planned organisation behind this terrible carnage arson and loot. Immediate posting of military in Noakhali Tipperah and Chittagong districts is urgently needed. Rescue and rehabilitation is the immediate task. Mass conversion of the entire population in certain places, coupled with the immense loss of lives and properties and abduction of women, has made recent Calcutta riot pale into insignificance.

Latest reports say, troubles have spread over other thanas of Noakhali. Portions of Hajiganj, Faridganj and Lakshamthans of Tipperah District have also been affected. The police and the military posted are extremely inadequate. Crowds of hooligans have cut off all communications and are destroying roads and bridges. If this wholesale destruction of lives and property be not stopped immediately, the whole of Chittagong Division will soon be completely devastated. Declaration of martial law in the affected areas is essential".

FIVE LOOTERS KILLED IN POLICE FIRING

CALCUTTA, Oct. 15 (API): Latest reports from East Bengal indicate that there is serious lawlessness in the Ramganj, Lakshmipur and Begumganj police stations of the district of Noakhali, says a Press Note issued by the Director of Publicity to the Government of Bengal at 6-15 p.m. today. It adds: "In Feni, the situation has been brought under control and is now quiet.

"Strong action is being taken in the affected places to restore order. A large force of armed police is operating in the affected area and they have opened fire on at least two occasions. Assemblies have been forbidden by an order under Sec. 144, Cr. P.C.

"Reports have also been received of trouble in the Hajiganj area of Tipperah District, and on the night of the 13th and 14th the police opened fire killing five looters Three looters were aso captured.

"Additional armed police are being sent to East Bengal for use in Noakhali and Tipperah as may be found to be necessary.

The Minister for Civil Supplies left Calcutta this morning for East Bengal".

BRITISH HURDLES FOR INDONESIA!

Every New Step In Republican Conflict Is Planned In London Says Moscow Radio

LONDON, Oct. 15. (A.P.A.): British and Dutch conferences with Dutch agents at Pangkal Pinang, Banka island were a cloak for British measures to suppress the Republican movement in Indonesia, the Moscow radio charged to-day, quoting a Tass despatch from the Hague.

The Russian report heard in London by the Soviet monitor said that the Pangkal Pinang conference did not differ from that held several months ago at Malino where Dutch agents, "doing as they were told by Dr. Van Mook, adopted a resolution saying that the Indonesians ostensibly did not want independence, but only sought to found an Indonesian federation within the framework of the Netherlands Kingdom," the radio said.

This resolution served as a pretext for the Dutch right-wing newspapers to launch a fresh campaign against the Indonesian Republic, the radio continued.

The radio quoted the Dutch Communist newspaper "De Waahreid" as commenting: "everything is done to prevent Indonesia from obtaining freedom. The fact that the British are bosses in Java has become common knowledge. Every new step in the Indonesian conflict is prepared in London. The Dutch colonisers are serving the interests of Great Britain."

Killearn For Singapore

BATAVIA, Oct. 15. (Reuter): Lord Killearn, British Special Commissioner in South-East Asia is leaving Batavia to-morrow for Singapore and will return to Batavia on Monday, it was stated here to-day. He presided yesterday at the meeting of British, Dutch and Indonesian delegates here which agreed to the truce ending hostilities between the Allies and the Indonesians in Java.

2,000 Arrests In Sumatra

Some 2,000 leaders and members of Irregular Indonesian fighting organisations along the East Coast of Sumatra have been arrested for not obeying the orders of the official Indonesian, leaders, a high Republican spokesman quoted by the Netherlands' news agency said to-day.

A British plane to-day took Mohammed Roem, Indonesian Minister of the Interior, and Air Commodore Soeriadarma, Indonesian member of the Joint Truce Commission, to the Indonesian Headquarters at Jogjakarta in Central Java, where they are to report to Dr. I. R. Soekarna President of the Indonesian republic, on the results of yesterday's truce agreement.

They are expected to invite General Soedirman, Commander-in-Chief of the Indonesian National Army and vice-Admiral Nasir of the Indonesian navy to come to Batavia and take part in the commission's activities.

CLOSING SCENES IN PARIS PEACE CONFERENCE

Yugoslavia Declares She Will Not Sign Treaty With Italy

PARIS, October 15, (Reuter): M. Georges Bidault declared the Paris Conference closed at 5-23 p.m. (Paris Time), 9-53 p.m. (I. S. T.).

The Palace of Luxemburg was crowded, today and the press and distinguished strangers' galleries were packed to capacity for the last session of the Paris Conference this afternoon. All 'Big Four' Foreign Ministers —Mr. Ernest Bevin, M. Georges Bidault, Mr. James Byrnes and M. Vyacheslav Molotov—were present as the session opened.

The chairman was Dr. Quo-Tai-Chai (China).

Hundreds of photographers swarmed on the floor of the Chamber, taking last minute pictures.

The first business was a letter read by the Chairman from the Yugoslav delegation regretting their inability to attend the final session. The letter said that this was because the decisions taken at the Conference on some questions were "of such nature that they render it impossible for the Yugoslav Government to sign the Peace Treaty" with Italy unless the main provisions concerning Yugoslavia are changed.

ONE WORLD

Announcing the conclusion of the business of the Conference, Dr. Quo said: "This Conference after two and a half months has finished its work. History alone will judge what has been achieved. But of one thing I am certain—the world in which we live today is a single and indivisible world. It is time that justice, decency, reason and humanity be firmly re-established in the world. This can only be achieved by the constant efforts of all nations and their statesmen to co-operate with each other in Conference, good faith and unity

"That is why I say that any attempt artificially to divide the world into blocs or groups is not only calculated to delay decisions for world peace, but will surely lead to disaster".

PLEA FOR "PEOPLE'S PEACE"

Mr. James Byrnes, United States Secretary of State, answered criticisms of the work of the Conference and pleaded for a people's peace".

"Whenever I think of the way in which representatives of smaller nations have worked at this Conference, I realise how distressed the peoples of these countries would have been, had they been denied an opportunity to express their views", he said. "The Conference has disclosed that these nations that participated in the fighting of the war are not only vitally interested in peace, but can make valuable contributions to the drafting of the Treaties.

"It is now the duty of the Council of Foreign Ministers to try to reconcile our differences. Such reconciliation necessarily means disappointment for some and probably for all, but we must exercise selfrestraint to maintain our common unity and bring peace to the war-weary world.

"Before we adjourn I want to assure you that as a member of the Council of Foreign Ministers, I will sympathetically examine every recommendation which has been adopted by this conference".

Mr. Byrnes moved two resolutions, one thanking the General Secretariat and interpreters for their work and the other thanking M. Bidault and the French Government for their hospitality. The resolutions were loudly applauded.

M. Vyacheslav Molotov, the next speaker, supported Mr. Byrnes' resolutions. "Now when we are labouring to establish peace," he continued, "the Soviet Union considers it to be its duty to continue the fight to achieve the objectives which we strove to achieve in the war. The Soviet union will continue to do all in its power, with full vigour and consistency, what it considers is essential for the establishment of democratic peace".

SEEDS OF WAR AND PEACE.

Mr. Ernest Bevin adding his support to Mr. Byrnes' resolutions said: "I will not enter into the difficulties of the conference except to say this one last word. It has been said that seeds of every great war have been sown in the settlement of the previous war. But it is equally true that seeds of permanent peace can be sown at the end of a great war. Every decision I have to take, and, I hold, every decision that others have to take, will be in recognition that if we take a wrong decision or push our own point of view too far, it is not this generation that has to pay for, it is the generations yet unborn."

M. Bidault took the chair as host for the final speech. "I want to thank the Chinese delegate," he said, "for the thought which has allowed the Head of the French Delegation to say farewell to representatives of 20 nations (Yugoslavia had announced her intention to remain away from the final session) who have come here to take part in the first public discussion since the war. We are still under the influence of the greatness of difficulties we have encountered, difficulties that have not in all cases been surmounted. We are still under the impression of numbers of speeches and arguments often in opposing senses that have been put forward, of the mutiplicity of votes which have been taken and the opposing views that have emerged".

FLOODS IN ASSAM SUBSIDING

But Extensive Paddy Cultivation Still Under Water

NOWGONG, Oct. 14, (API): The floods in Nowgong District are subsiding gradually, but a very large area with extensive paddy cultivation is still under water. Many people are sheltering on the Bengal-Assam Railway line and other roads and high lands where they had taken refuge.

Besides loss of a large number of cattle, it is reported that there have also been some cases of death by drowning of both men and women.

Train service between Chaparmukh and Gauhati is suspended due to a breach between Dharmatul and Jagi road stations. The South Assam Trunk road is also closed due to breaches. Cattle in the affected areas are going without fodder.

Siamese Bid For Peace With France

BANGKOK, Oct. 15. (Reuter): The Siamese Parliament to-day endorsed Government's decision to return the four disputed provinces to France by 91 votes to 29.

The Government was authorised to proceed with the negotiations.

The territories will be transferred as the basis for further negotiations.

One of the French proposals was that Siam should declare null and void the Tokyo Treaty of 1941.

The provinces are Battambang, Bassac, parts of Seimrap in Cambodia and also the province west of the Mekong.

PARIS HAS NO NEWS YET.

PARIS: The French Government has had no official confirmation yet of the Siamese Government's proposal to return to French Indo-China the four disputed border provinces, but it confirmed that France "would be perfectly satisfied save for few minor rectifications", a spokesman of the French Ministry for Colonies said to-day.

Minor rectifications, the spokesman said, would be chiefly in the Luang-Brabang territory in Laos and probably would be in favour of Siam".

Increase In Sugar Prices?

Prospects Of Revision Of Cotton Floor Rates

(From Our Correspondent.)

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15.

Following the visit of Sir Purshotamdas Thakurdas to New Delhi, reports are current here of the Government of India shortly revising the floor prices of cotton by stepping them up.

The Government is also expected to accept the recommendation of the Sugar Conference by increasing the prices of sugar in conformity with the recently enhanced prices of sugarcane.

Congress circles in New Delhi anticipate the early abolition of salt tax. They presume that the enquiry promised by the former Finance Member Sir Archibald Rowlands must have been completed, and the Government of India will be in a position to set up the improved machinery for the production and distribution of salt which would compensate for the loss of revenue from salt.

Legislative proposals are believed to be under examination here and are likely to be brought before the October session of the Central legislature regulating the opening of branches by scheduled banks. Porvision to deal with the "Growing Evil" does exist in the Banking Bill which is at present in the Select Committee stage: Financial opinion however demanded an early enactment of law even in the absence of the Banking Bill which is bound to take several months for the final passage.

The Australian Industrial Delegation is arriving here on the 26th inst. and will stay in New Delhi till November 1, when it leaves for Peshawar.

KARACHI, Oct 15, (API): The Government of India's Textile Mission to the United Kingdom and United States of America arrived in Karachi today from Bombay on its way to London.

Mr. Krishnaraj Thackersay, Chairman of the Textile Control Board, leads the delegation and is accompanied by Mr. T. P. Barat, Joint Textile Commissioner. Sir Frederick Stones, Hon. Technical Adviser to the Government and Dharamsay Khatau Chairman of the Post-war Planning Committee (textiles) other members of the Mission are already in London.

The delegation leaves Karachi for London tomorrow and is expected to stay abroad for six weeks.

Mr. Krishnaraj said, that the Mission would endeavour to accelerate the delivery of the machinery already ordered by the Indian Textile Industrialists.

Speaking about the present condition of Textile Industry he said that, the Government of India were investigating the claim of the industry for higher prices on account of the rise in cotton prices. The cloth position had deteriorated for the last three months. He pointed out that while the average monthly production up to the month of May was 35 million yards, the production had dropped down to 29 million yards due to riots in Ahmedabad and Bombay since then.

Nazism Not Dead!

PARIS, Oct. 15. (Reuter): The French judiciary police announced today the arrest of several members of a secret organisation which they think may be the nucleus of a new pro-Nazi movement.

The police theory is that the new organisation was intended to include former members of wartime pro-Nazi groups like the Militia, the Waffen S. S. and Vichy Volunteers.

"Hold-Up" Gang Arrested

The police to-day arrested a number of men believed to be members of a gang suspected of staging a hold-up in Montparnasse station last month and getting away with mail bags containing 6,000,000 francs worth of securities.

Nazi Chiefs Prepare For Death

NUREMBERG, Oct. 15. (Reuter). Less than 36 hours to go before he must hang. Hermann Goering told his doctor this morning of his faith in religion, adding: "I have no fear and will to the end show dignity".

Goering also told his doctor that he did not sleep too well last night.

Jodle said in his death cell today: "I put my faith in religion. The fundamental of every religion must be love. I slept well last night".

Ribbentrop said: "I did not sleep too well. To-day I have a headache".

Sauckel, Hitler's Slve Labour Chief, reflected: "I see now that my fate is inevitable, but I think my sentence was a mistake".

Roman Catholic and Protestant Chaplains visited the condemned men to-day.

None of the accused know the exact hour when they will be executed nor do they know if their execution is to be in public.

The authorities are maintaining the most rigid secrecy about the final arrangements for the execution.

They Will Be Hanged At Midnight

NUREMBERG, Oct, 15, (A. P. A.): A report circulated in unofficial court house circles at Nuremberg today said that the hanging of the 11 condemned Nazis would start within the prison yard at one minute after midnight on Tuesday night (that is 00.01 hours on Wednesday) instead of at dawn as is customary.

It was also said that the sentences would be carried out in three hours and that a formal announcement would be made by 04-00 hours. This would mean that more than one scaffold and more than one hangman would function.

MODEL VILLAGE FOR INDIAN RESISTERS

Gift Of 30 Acres Of Land Near Durban: Rand 'Daily Mail's' Advice To Union Govt.

(From Our Correspondent.)

DURBAN, Oct. 14.

The Rand "Daily Mail" in an editorial entitled "India Shows The Way" writes, "South Africa will soon stand arraigned before the U.N.O. as oppressor. Although we can hardly be expected in a few decades to have achieved the all-embracing humanitarianism of a nation that has for many thousand years been blessed with a great religious and political philosophy, it may be expedient to make a last-minute effort to convince our accusers that we are striving towards their own immaculate standards.

NO DISCRIMINATION

"To this end the Union Government should deal sternly with any measures either political or religious tending to restrict any section of the community to careers such as scavengers and sweepers and to prevent them raising themselves from despised status. All sections of the community should be allowed to walk freely in streets and enter churches and shops. Children, however, low their caste must not be left to absorb their education through open windows of classrooms used by their superiors nor must they be left on verandahs of hospitals.

"South Africa must also start taking steps to protect her people from cholera, plague, famine and the life-long burden of debt that is the heritage of the poor in some great Asiatic countries.

If the Union makes a real effort to achieve even these elementary conditions of civilisation, the time may come when responsible South African Indians visiting their motherland may return with the assurance that we are not really far behind India, at least not far enough to justify taking us to Court about it".

DADOO CALLS CONGRESS MEETING

Dr. Dadoo, President, Transvaal Indian Congress, has convened the annual meeting of the Congress at Johannesburg on October 20 in his own name, after the Secretaries, Mr. Z. V. Parekh and Mr. A. I. Minty failed to do so. It is learnt that legal action will be taken against Dr. Dadoo to prevent him from holding the meeting.

GIFT FOR RESISTER

It is understood that 30 acres of land between Durban and Pietermaritzburg has been donated to the Passive Resistance Council to develop a sort of communal village for resisters who may be unable to return to their former occupations. The village is being planned by experts and will be along most modern lines.

Denial of ordinary human rights to 90 per cent of the people of this country was an abiding shame, declared Mr. J. R. Sullivan, Member of Parliament, speaking at the fifth annual meeting of friends of the Sick Association, Durban, on Saturday.

VIRTUAL SLAVERY

Mr. Sullivan said he recalled with a sense of shame how during the last session of the South African Parliament, one-third of the members voted against increased old-age pensions for non-Europeans and against free meals for children of a race with the highest infantile mortality rate in the world That was a standing disgrace to the social and political get-up of South Africa and she would only progress if these evils were eliminated. South Africa, he declared, was deliberately maintaining a whole population as source of cheap labour. "We are maintaining a social system not far from slavery."

Lohia Claims Damages From Govt. Of Goa

BELGAUM, Oct 15, (API): Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia, the Congress Socialist leader who was recently arrested and released by the Portuguese authorities in India and whose entry into their territory has now been banned by them, addressing local pressmen dwelt on the absence of civil liberties in Goa.

If a plebiscite were taken today Dr. Lohia said, the Goans would not only demand civil liberties which were denied to them but would also demand cessation of Portuguese domination over them.

He emphasised that the present satyagraha in Goa was not conducted by outsiders, adding that the arrested satyagrahis numbering 200 belonged to Goa.

Dr. Lohia said that his entry into Goa was only casual. He felt highly offended when he as an Indian entering Goa was termed as a foreigner and arrested by the Portuguese authorities. He had claimed apology and damages from that Government, he added.

AJIT SINGH STILL ALIVE?

Jawahar Promises To Make Telegraphic Enquiries

NEW DELHI, Oct. 15, (U. P. I.): Messrs. Kulbir Singh and Mukar Singh, two Nephews of Sardar Ajit Singh, uncle of the great revolutionary Sardar Bhagat Singh, whose death has been announced only a few days back, met Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru this morning and told him that in their opinion, the news about the death of Sardar Ajit Singh was incorrect. It is understood that Pandit Nehru assured them about making telegraphic enquiries about the correctness of the news.

Sardar Ajit Singh, it may be recalled, was a minister in the Azad Hind Government of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose which was inaugurated in Germany. He used to broadcast from Rome on the Rome Radio. But after the fall of Italy, he was arrested by the British Government and kept in the Pader Bovens Detention Camp. He was released from detention about 3 months back, but removed to the Belfield Hospital for treatment of T. B. which caught in the Pader Detention Camp.

The United Press of India learns that the Government of India recently removed all ban on his entry into India and all arrangements were being made for his repatriation into India. It is further learnt that the Government of India has asked the Indian Military Mission in Berlin to arrange his passage to India.

The fire at the booking office was extinguished by the fire brigade.

D. F. Karaka:

Off My Chest

Among those, who have applied for British nationality in India, there appear to be many who call themselves "Stateless".

At sight one feels sorry for such people and sympathetic to their cause. The plain fact, however, is that many of those who describe themselves as "Stateless" rely on a decree of Hitler of 25th November 1941 when, on a specially vexatious day the Fuehrer said:

"All Jews and other people, originating from German-dominated countries, who give to understand by their behaviour that they do no longer consider themselves as members of the Greater German Nation, are hereby deprived of their nationality"

This decree was not in accordance with International Law and the British Government, after much debate in the House of Commons, has refused to recognise this decree. When the Allies occupied Germany, one of the first acts of the Allied Government was to declare this decree, along with other racial laws as invalid

There are people who are really "Stateless". They were mentioned by NAME in the black list issued by Hitler of enemies of the Reich. I have seen one such black list and there is at least one person in India or, the present time who has figured on such a list. Such a person would be "Stateless", but I feel that the individual concerned should be asked to prove on what grounds he claims to be Stateless.

While on the subject of naturalisation, I noticed another long list in the papers the other day. One name in this list is that of Captain Vilem Haas, who gives a Dehra Dun address. Captain Haas says his present nationality is Czech.

But who is this Captain Haas? How is he a Captain? To what Army did or does he belong? Or was he only a Censor in this war?

Was Captain Haas always a Czech? What was his background? Were his parents Czech? Where was he born?

Now if Captain Haas is a real Czech and always has been a Czech, I'd like to point out to him that recently the Czech Government complained that they had only a small percentage of the needed journalists because many of them were expelled to Germany after having displayed pro-German sentiments. Reports reaching me say that Haas was once a journalist—so why doesn't he go back to his country, Czechoslovakia which needs him?

We want details on Captain Haas from the Home Office. We want to know more than what appears in the papers? We particularly want to know how a Czech became a Captain in this country and why.

The Home Secretary of the Interim Government must clearly understand his responsibilities at the present moment. Being new to his job, we do not want to see him naturalize a lot of people who would otherwise not be naturalised. The old system, which worked under the British, has proved itself to be too full of graft and intrigue on these matters. Since we are ow looking for war criminals all over the world, let us look for some who are in this country and who committed all sorts of breaches of faith and discipline. Let us see how the internment camps of India were run. Who ran these camps and how? Many interesting revelations may come to light of how graft played a conspicuous part in the activities of the officials in charge.

BRITISH NOTE TO WARSAW

The British Ambassador in Warsaw has been instructed to ask for full investigation of the incident, and also to ask for the return of the cine camera taken from one of the British officials.

Preparations For Struggle Must Go On

JAI PRAKASH NARAIN'S WARNING AGAINST CONSTITUTIONALISM

PATNA, October 14. (A.P.I.): "The Viceroy was anxious to have Muslim Leaguers in the Interim Government only to throw an apple of discord and ultimately to bring about its failure to demonstrate before the world that Indians are unfit to rule themselves", said Mr. Jai Prakash Narain, member of the Congress Working Committee, presiding over the second session of the Bihar Provincial Shop Assistants' Association.

Mr. Narain personally believed that the entry of Muslim Leaguers would disturb the smooth working of the Interim Government.

Mr. Narain said that preparations for the next struggle must continue even while experiments in constitutionalism proceeded.

The Constituent Assembly and the Interim Government had created two sets of opinion in the Congress rank and file though all agreed that freedom could come only through a fight. One section wanted their outright rejection while the other wanted to experiment with them.

Let the experiment be carried on but preparations for the struggle must be kept up because ultimately direct action would have to be launched for liberating India.

The aim of the people, Mr. Narain added would be the establishment of a state where workers should have the supreme voice. There were two factors which were obstructing the materialisation of such a state and these were the foreign rule and the capitalistic society. Imperialism and capitalism were co-existent in this country and the former must be liquidated for securing the abolition of the latter.

The fight for ending imperialism was still on in spite of the formation of the Interim Government, concluded Mr. Narain.

No 'Big Three' Secret Pact On China

U. S. State Dept. Denial

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (Reuter).—The United States State Department tonight denied that the British Prime Minister, Mr. Clement Attlee, Generalissimo Stalin and President Truman reached any secret agreement on China at the Potsdam Conference. "It has no basis in fact", the spokesman declared when questioned on the claim by the unofficial "American China Policy Association" that a secret pact was signed by the 'Big Three.'

CONCESSION TO SOVIET AT CHINA'S EXPENSE

The Association sent a letter to President Truman calling on him to make the alleged agreement public. The secret pact was alleged to have provided for severing outer Mongolia from China, dividing Korea, giving Russia extra reparations in Manchuria, agreeing to force the Chungking Government to accept Communists in the coalition and allowing the Soviet Union the freedom to act on its own responsibility if the salient points in the agreement could not be secured by American pressure.

WINDSOR TO MEET ATTLEE

LONDON, Oct. 14 (Reuter).—The Duke of Windsor and Mr. Clement Attlee, the British Prime Minister, are to meet at No. 10, Downing Street, it is learned from an informed source, cables Fraser Wighton, Reuter's Political Correspondent.

The Duke and the Duchess of Windsor arrived in England last week and will be here for some time. No date has been fixed so far for the Duke's meeting with Mr. Attlee, but it is expected to take place very soon.

GERMAN PRESS AND POLITICIANS GAGGED

BERLIN, Oct 15 (APA): German newspapers and politicians in all four zones of occupation are forbidden to criticise the decisions of Potsdam and any future conferences of the Allied powers on Germany in a new directive published yesterday by the Allied control authority.

The new code also prohibits spreading of nationalistic and pan-Germanic ideas and the dissemination of rumours aimed at disrupting unity among the occupying powers.

This step was taken after the Russians had protested in the control council against utterances of certain German politicians which were printed in the British and American-licensed press here, and after the Americans and British had countered with protests against articles printed in Soviet-controlled papers which were regarded as critical of the policies of the western powers.

Two More Days— & We All Go Phut!

Good Old Earth To 'Dissolve' On Thursday, Says Padri Long!

PASADENA, California (By Air Mail) (UPA): The Rev. Charles G. Long, crossed up on his Doomsday Prophecy last year, rechecked his figures and announced that an atomic explosion would end the world on October 17.

Rev. Long, leader of the Remnant Church of God, originally set the end of the world for September 21, 1945. The next day (Sept. 22), he said there must have been some mistake.

He went over his parables, mathematical equations, time zones and Biblical calendars, and concluded that October 17 was the scriptural deadline for the Lord to dissolve the earth by ordering all the atoms to separate.

IS REV. LONG DRAWING LONG BOW?

"This was the day appointed for the end of the world," the 73-year-old prophet told his faithful flock of 50. "Thus it was prophesied, and thus it shall be, unless there is further tarrying."

The prophecy, according to Rev. Long, is contained in the parable of the wise and foolish virgins and in other bible verses, but while it sets the day it doesn't say what year. If it isn't 1946, he said, it might just as well be 1999. "In the parable, the virgins tarried and missed the bridegroom," he said.

SALES TAX CONFUSION

Petty Shopkeepers Indulge In New Racket

There seems to be some confusion in the levying of the Sales Tax in the city.

Whereas legislation embraces sales of Rs. 30,000 and upwards only, somehow, in the city a new racket has been started by petty merchants and restauranteurs, who levy the tax on their own from every customer.

Consequently on a meal costing 8 as., a customer has to pay an anna more and on a soap bought from even a ramshackle shop one has to pay from a quarter anna to a half anna extra.

The public cannot help but pay as a meal and a soap are absolute daily necessaries, but all the same they feel bevildered at the manner in which the tax is being levied in the city at present, without even the semblance of a receipt.

Arrested For Alleged Cheating

BOMBAY, October 15: Gopalkrishna Damodar Shanai, who is said to have cheated a person to the tune of Rs. 221 on the pretext of getting a good room for him in the city was arrested by the City Police yesterday and produced before Mr. K. J. Khambata, Presidency Magistrate, Girgaum Police Court today.

The accused was allowed bail for a fortnight pending investigations.

BOMBAY COTTON

BOMBAY, Oct. 15.—The Cotton market opened very steady with moderate activity.

It is said that the Government will not raise floor price of Rs. 350 but in view of various representations made, the Government will buy cotton when prices decline to Rs. 400. This assurance is mainly responsible for the steady tone of the market.

On the other side well informed houses say that the Government selection is very strict and the crop is likely to be 45 lakhs bales. It is true that at present arrivals are light and there is not much hedge selling pressure. But when the movement of th new crop increases there will be increased hedge selling.

The market opened today at Rs. 445 for January delivery and advanced at Rs. 446 under moderate buying and covering. Later on there was moderate realising and the market reacted at Rs. 444. Karachi advices were also higher.

World Cotton Export Trade Increases

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13, (USIS): The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced here tonight that the world export trade in cotton has risen sharply since war's end, amounting to 9,038,000 bales of 500 pounds each during the year ended July 31, 1946. About 750,000 bales of the total represented UNRRA relief shipments.

During the five war-time years, the average export total was 5,072,000 bales. The prewar yearly average was about 13 million bales.

The Department's Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations pointed out that a larger-than-usual proportion of the world export trade in cotton in 1945-46 came from the United States and other Western Hemisphere nations.

U. S. cotton shipments amounted to 3,678,000 bales, or 41 per cent of the world total. Brazil's exports, amounting to 1,471,000 represented that country's second largest export total on record. Both Peru's and Mexico's shipments, totalling 440,000 and 263,000 bales respectively, set new records.

The Agriculture Department also reported that the Soviet Union, which exported cotton only occasionally before the war, became an important supplier of this commodity in eastern Europe in 1945-46 and also furnished a small quantity to the United Kingdom. Russian cotton exports were estimated about 250,000 bales.

WALL STREET MARKET VERY STEADY

NEW YORK, Oct. 14

Wall Street made a further small headway on a reduced volume trading with gains running up to nearly two points. Steels and tobaccos were prominent, the former reflecting estimates of the highest steel schedule this week since July 1945 and the latter general adoption of a few of the earlier instituted cigarette price rises. Most traders are showing caution and awaiting President Truman's radio address tonight. The bulk of opinion predicts that meat ceiling prices will be raised to ease shortages but expect Truman will insist that Government controls of prices and wages should be not abandoned at present. Precautionary profittaking in late dealings caused several leaders to stumble notably steels, foods, motors and minings but elsewhere gains up to two points were fairly well maintained. Pivotals like Dupont and Eastman Kodak received support in the final hour and both finished 7 points higher. The market closed very steady.

TREASURY BUYS AMERICAN SILVER

NEW YORK, Oct. 14, (U. P. A.): The "Wall Street Journal" today quoted a Treasury official as saying that the Treasury last week bought 402,908 ounces of newly mined domestic silver, which was the Treasury's first domestic purchase of newly mined silver since Congress raised the price to 90.5 cents an ounce in July.

The Journal said the Anaconda Copper Co. delivered 300,186 gross troy ounces of silver to the New Assay Office for dol. 270,606 and the American Smelting and Refining Company received dol., 92,968 for 102,722 ounces delivered to the San Francisco Mint.

The paper said a Treasury spokesman declared that the supply of foreign and domestic silver was apparently sufficient to meet the needs of commercial and industrial users.

WORTH STREET QUIET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14, (U. P. A.): Trading on the Worth Street Market was quiet today. Selling agents said that buyers pressed inquiry for additional yardages but producers are presently holding off. The more conservative policy is based partly on the belief that the mills allocated all the goods they cared to release pending further raw cotton market developments.

Some converters said buyers more selective in making purchases with some more expensively finished goods moving at a slower pace. However, on staples, goods declined by some buyers are easily disposed of in other directions.

Wool fabric quarters reported an expanding nation-wide demand for woollen and worsted fabrics but producers were conservative through production handicaps. The shortage of soda ash is reported beginning to hinder wool scouring operations.

IRREGULAR PRICE MOVEMENT ON NEW YORK COTTON EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.

Cotton opened barely steady 17 lower to 4 higher. Near months were mostly affected by accumulation of weekend hedges, but soon rallied on increased trade support and some covering before President Truman's radio talk to-night. Otherwise no fresh news developed, and prices later eased again owing to lack of follow-up support with evident disposition to await developments. Trends became slightly mixed around noon. The, market continued to move irregularly during the afternoon inreflection of lack of confidence on either side. Another mild rally on mill buying and further covering before Truman's radio talk subsequently attracted renewed hedging and resulted in a barely steady close, 10 lower to 18 higher. Sales are estimated at 200,000 bales.

BRITISH GOVT. WANTS FRANCO TO GO

But Opposed To Economic Sanctions Against Spain

LONDON, Oct. 14 (Reuter): The British Government has made plain by diplomatic representation that in their opinion, General Franco should go. They want that done without a civil war.

Mr. Hector McNeil, the British Minister of State, said this when replying to a brief debate on Spain in the House of Commons tonight.

He said, "Franco represents a thoroughly unpalatable and repugnant regime", and added, "This government has said repeatedly that this is their view, because his regime is authoritarian and oppressive because of his pro-Axis activities and because he has failed completely in his first job of unifying Spain and ending the divisions and wounds which the civil war imposed on that country. In our opinion, he should go."

Mr. McNeil rejected the suggestion of economic blockade made by Captain Francis Noel Baker, Labour member, who recently made a secret visit to Spain. Economic blockade, Mr. McNeil said, would hurt rather than help the Spanish people and he would not be concerned with it."

The business of organising an economic blockade was no easy business. It would not be effective at all if Britain severed economic relations with Spain, Britain would have to organise a very wide community of nations taking in primarily the United States, Brazil, and Argentine.

"The other thing which might be considered was a blockade in fuel oil if we could get an international agreement" Mr. McNeil declared.

He doubted if there was an alternative government available in Spain just now. When one emerged, the Spanish people would not need much help, but what they needed they could have from the British Government.

Mr. Francis Noel Baker, who had initiated the debate, said that his journey to Spain had proved to him that there was still an organised Republican resistance movement, that despite a record harvest and end of war and what had been interpreted as non-intervention policy, General Franco's position was very far from secure. His conversations had convinced him that there was a general determination that a change must come quickly without a civil war.

The ultimate danger of leaving the situation in Spain to fester was that the longer General Franco's dictatorship lasted, the greater the probability that it would end in bloodshed and its successor would be another dictatorship of a different but very violent kind.

There was a great danger for this country in inactivity and the apparent indifference of the British Government towards the Spanish situation, he said. It was not too late to save democracy in Spain. There must be a threat of action and if that failed, then action itself to convince Spain that this time Franco really had to go. The simplest method would be the enforcement of economic sanctions.

Mr. Francis Noel Baker is the son of the Air Minister and former Minister of State, Mr. Noel Baker.

Truman Removes Control On Meat And Livestock

WASHINGTON, October 15. (A.P. A.): Immediate release of all meat and livestock from price control was announced last night by President Truman.

At the same time, the President said removal of wage controls would be accelerated, as the Government speeded up the removal of price controls. But no immediate action on this phase of the stabilisation programme was ordered.

The President coupled his action with a vigorous denunciation of a few men in Congress who, he said, "in the service of selfish interests have been determined for some time to wreck price controls no matter what the cost might be to our people." The President did not name anybody.

At another stage in his broadcast to the meat-starved nation made only three weeks before the Congressional elections, the President noted that many members of the Congress and many candidates have "pledged themselves to vote for the removal of price controls as soon as Congress meets."

"As a result, many businessmen have held on to the products they would normally sell, gambling on the possibility of release of price control and an opportunity for greater profits. This has been conspicuously true in the case of meat. The American people will not condone those who in order further to fatten their profits are endangering the health of our people by holding back vital foods which are now ready for the market and for which the American nation is clamouring." the President stated.

"The real blame lies at the door of a reckless group of selfish men who, in the hope of gaining political advantage, have encouraged sellers to gamble on the destruction of price control." the President continued.
